

Tails But No Black Tie

Benefiting Equest Farm & New Orleans City Park

Celebrating the 25th anniversary of Equest Farm

Join us for an entertaining night of horses and a trip down memory lane! Riders, trainers and owners are invited "Back to the Barn" for a night to enjoy our sport and be entertained by some of the best Grand Prix horses and riders in the country.

This year, attendees will enjoy riding displays, food trucks, cash bars, Pony Rides, Zoo 2 U Petting Zoo, and of course the Grand Prix at the end of the evening. Grandstand ticket holders will enjoy a lovely catered dinner, open bar, and up-close viewing of the Grand Prix.

Tails but no Black Tie proceeds will support
Equest Farm and City Park Conservancy.

Equest Farm strives to provide a wholesome and aesthetically pleasing environment for the public to enjoy the majesty of horses in an urban environment. Proceeds from this year's event will support an Equest Farm improvement project to ventilate and repair the school barn roof.

City Park Conservancy is committed to serving the public's best interests and providing the oversight and expertise necessary to ensure that this world-class greenspace is accessible to all.

Thank you for your support!
